

An Inquiry Into Wisdom

This course will examine a selection of personalities and themes chronicled in Dean Chavooshian's book The Pursuit of Wisdom - all of whom have had a colossal impact on society and the nature of human existence. Each session will explore topics in the interrelated fields of theology, philosophy, and science. Following an introduction of the ideas and achievements of each individual, emphasis will be on an open forum of discussion and debate.

Sundays, October 16, 23, 30 at 2 pm

October 16:
Lao Tzu , Plato, Galileo

October 23:
Prophet Muhammad, Sigmund Freud, Albert Einstein

October 30:
Martin Luther, Jean-Paul Sartre, James Watson & Francis Crick

All Events are Free and Open to the Public!

Short chapter copies from the book will be available at registration, starting Sunday, October 2—2nd floor desk. Chapter copies are also available on the Jefferson Market Library Upcoming Events listing for An Inquiry Into Wisdom. Please read before class!

The Jefferson Market Library
425 Avenue of the Americas at 10th Street
New York, NY 10011 212-243-4334

Presented in the 1st floor
Willa Cather
Community Room